

FAUJI OIL TERMINAL & DISTRIBUTION COMPANY LTD

QUALITY, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

FOTCO's Management is committed to quality services, prevention of pollution, provide for health and safety of its employees and to gain recognition amongst its customers and stakeholders as provider of reliable, efficient, safe and environment friendly Marine Oil Terminal Services. FOTCO management shall continually improve effectiveness of integrated management system through:

Consistently meeting or exceeding customer/interested parties/stake holders requirements for service quality, environmental, OH&S compliance and organization performance with regards to Quality, Environment, Health & Safety including compliance to applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

Regular monitoring and measurement of Noise, Effluent Discharges, Hazardous / Non-hazardous waste, energy consumption through adopting methods for eliminating, reducing, recycling and reuse as appropriate.

Eliminating/mitigating un-tolerable environmental impacts/emergency situations (Oil Spill, Fire, OH&S Risks) from FOTCO facilities, services, processes and activities through modifying controls, PPEs adopting better technology solutions and through emergency response plans as appropriate.

Efficient utilization of FOTCO infrastructure for provision of services through improving cycle time, turn around time of shipments, jetty occupancy and service reliability.

Committed to the prevention of injury and ill health by providing safe working environment, promoting safe working practices and facilitating health care of the employees, contractors & visitors.

Committed to comply with the applicable legal / industry / other regulations to which the organization subscribes that relate to HSE.

Providing safe working environment, promoting safe working practices and facilitating health care of the employees.